Jones Homes, building quality homes

The picturesque market town of Kendal has so much to offer. Situated in the South of the Lake District, 6 miles from the M6 motorway (J36) and just a few minutes drive from the West Coast mainline station at Oxenholme.

Often referred to as 'The Gateway to the Lakes' Kendal offers an enviable mix of town and country with the coast just a short drive away. Home to two castles, two museums, a host of historical buildings and bridges, Kendal is a notorious favourite for photographers.

Kendal has a selection of both independent and high street shopping and the area has many eateries. From Michelin starred restaurants to gastro-pubs galore and with the Lake District National Park on your doorstep, there is always a scenic walking route to be explored.

For families, the Kendal area has several primary schools and the local senior school is just 1.5 miles away.

It is little surprise that in a Sunday Times list of best places to live in the UK, Kendal was ranked in the top 3. According to the paper, Kendal has “superlative shopping, bags of community spirit and an enviable location”.

Homes built with pride

With over 55 years' experience building individual houses in locations as desirable as Kendal, you can trust Jones Homes to create your perfect new home.

All our homes are built on the same values, and as one of the leading builders of quality new homes, we take great pride in our exceptional standards of design, construction and specification. From the quality of our materials to the well-considered layouts, every new development is the
